

Building a Healthy Future

Ageing with HIV

28th April 2010, TV Centre, Staffordshire University, Beaconside, Stafford, ST18 0AG

Time	Event	Speaker
09.00 – 09.30	Registration (with tea/coffee)	Ruxton Technology Foyer
09.30 – 09.40	Welcome	Professor Christine King Vice Chancellor, Staffordshire University
09.40 – 09.50	Context	Mr Rob Merchant
09.50 – 10.50	Aids Community Research Initiative of America (ACRIA) 'The Emerging Population of Older Adults with HIV'	Dr Stephen Karpiak, Director for Research Dr Mark Brennan, Senior Research Scientist ACRIA Centre on HIV & Ageing & New York University College of Nursing
10.50 – 11.20	Coffee break & networking	Ruxton Technology Foyer
11.20 – 12.00	'Medical aspects of Ageing with HIV'	Dr Mike Youle Director of HIV Research Royal Free Hospital.
12.00 – 12.45	'50+ the needs of people living with HIV over 50 in the UK'	Lisa Power, Head of Policy, Terrence Higgins Trust
12.45 – 13.45	Lunch & networking	The Gallery Restaurant
13.45 – 14.30	'Ageing with HIV'	Maurice Greenham Person Living with HIV
14.30 – 15.15	'Compare and contrast; HIV care for the mature versus the less mature'	Dr David Asboe, Consultant Directorate of HIV Medicine and Sexual Health Chelsea and Westminster Hospital
15.15 – 15.35	Coffee	Ruxton Technology Foyer
15.35 – 16.15	Panel session: Question and Answers	All conference speakers chaired by Mrs Caroline Rowe, Senior Lecturer Staffordshire University
16.15	Close of conference	Taxi pick-ups Ruxton Technology Foyer

To book a place please contact
Elaine Stanway on e.stanway@staffs.ac.uk or 01785 353742