building together for tomorrow

Tuesday 20th April 2010

Manchester Central Convention Complex

George House Trust has been providing services to those living with or affected by HIV in the North West for 25 years

As part of our 25th anniversary celebrations, George House Trust will be holding a one day National HIV Social Care Conference 'Still living with HIV: Building together for tomorrow' on Tuesday 20th April 2010.

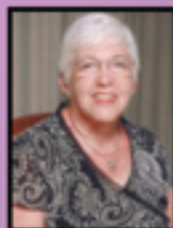

The conference will focus on planning for the future and the changing needs of people living with HIV. It will consider the impact of the recession, the general election, the ageing population, the ongoing effect of HIV related stigma and positive prevention strategies.
